

SPEECH FACTORS

S

SOCIETAL

Concerned with how groups or whole societies feel about an issue and how they can influence our thinking. Within NZ we must consider the role of iwi and hapu in influencing the thought processes of individuals. It is the personal and inter-personal influences

P

POLITICAL

Concerned with how politicians, politics and laws influence our thinking concerning a topic. Of all factors this can be the most influential since they have the power to alter the laws to suit. In sporting terms – many countries use sport as a vehicle for promoting their political agendas.

E

ECONOMIC

Concerned with money and the impact it has. Who has it? What can be done with it? Who does not have it?

E

ENVIRONMENTAL

Concerned with what is around people and how they are influenced by it. Environmental influences are wide ranging and include aspects such as the media, where you live and what you have access to.

E

ETHICAL

Concerned with social justice: What is right? Whose interests are being served? Who is advantaged and who is disadvantaged? Are everyone's basic human rights and needs being met?

C

CULTURAL

Concerned with the upbringing and understanding of culture. It can include ethnic culture, religious culture, class culture and a sense of national culture.

H

HISTORICAL

Concerned with our history as a nation or as an iwi/hapu and the influences it has on our thinking about a topic. Considers aspects such as sporting history and is often bound in tradition.