

Health and Physical Education Programs of Learning

Level 1

Course Title PED2

Course Code 11PED2

Driving Question: 1.3
What impact does learning a new skill have on our Hauora? How does learning a new skill influence our Hauora?
Specific Achievement Objective(s) from the NZC	Key Skills - Discipline Specific
Health and Physical Education Level 6 A1 Personal growth and development Students will investigate and understand the reasons for the choices people make that affect their well-being and explore and evaluate options and consequences.	Detailed understanding and application of hauora and able to make clear interrelationships between dimensions. Detailed understanding of Te Whare Tapa Wha and Fonofale Health models.
Mātauranga Māori	Wider Cultural Contexts
Detailed understanding and application of the concept of Hauora. Learners will make sense of and apply Te Whare Tapa Wha.	Learners will make sense of and apply the Fonofale Health Model.
Enduring Understandings	Literacy/Numeracy Skills
Learners will engage in the process of learning a new skill in different environments and apply the skill in different contexts. Learners will reflect on how the process of learning a new skill (golf) impacts their Hauora.	Paragraph writing
Timeframes
8 weeks
Summative Assessment Task(s)	Formative Assessment Task(s) (Links to standards/assessment booklets) NCEA
1. 2.	1. 92018 2.

Notes: (What worked / didn't work / recommended changes from 2024)

Driving Question: 1.4

How is movement in Aotearoa and the Pacific influenced?

Specific Achievement Objective(s) from the NZC	Key Skills - Discipline Specific
Health and Physical Education Level 6 A2 Regular physical activity - Students will choose and maintain ongoing involvement in appropriate physical activities and examine factors influencing their participation. B4 Challenges and social and cultural factors - Students will demonstrate understanding and affirmation of people's diverse social and cultural needs and practices when participating in physical activities D1 Societal attitudes and values - Analyse societal influences that shape community health goals and physical activity patterns	Understanding and application of personal, interpersonal and societal influences and impacts. Understanding and application of biophysical principles to movement contexts. Understanding and application of te ao Māori influences to movement contexts.
Mātauranga Māori	Wider Cultural Contexts
Learners will make sense of and apply te ao Māori influences to their chosen movement context. Tapu, Tuakana-Teina, Kaitiakitanga,	Learners will make sense of and apply socio-cultural influences such as cost, gender, racism, accessibility, Pacific knowledge and values.
Enduring Understandings	Literacy/Numeracy Skills

Learners will engage in the process of learning a new skill in different environments and apply the skill in different contexts. Learners demonstrate their understanding of influences on movement, and will reflect on their own movements with reference to te ao Māori aspects, biophysical and sociocultural aspects.	Paragraph writing
Timeframes
8 weeks
Summative Assessment Task(s)	Formative Assessment Task(s) (Links to standards/ assessment booklets) NCEA
1. 2.	1. 92019 2.
Notes: (What worked / didn't work / recommended changes from 2024)	