

Name:

Whānau Mentor Class:

Alfriston college

Health and Physical Education

Year 9

Attitudes & Values

The learning within this booklet will frame your assessment and be marked by your Learning Leader.

This work must be completed to a high standard and be completely your own. Any plagiarism will result in No Evidence NE grade and contact home will be made.

Learning Objectives: Learners will build knowledge and make sense of Hellison's model of social responsibility and using a reflective process explain how their own level has an impact on others.

Success Criteria: Learners will know they have been successful when they have engaged positively with others and completed the practical and theory learning.

Learner Instructions: Within this unit of work learners are to take part in both practical and theory lessons. This means you will need to be prepared for learning each lesson with a pen, PE uniform and chromebook.

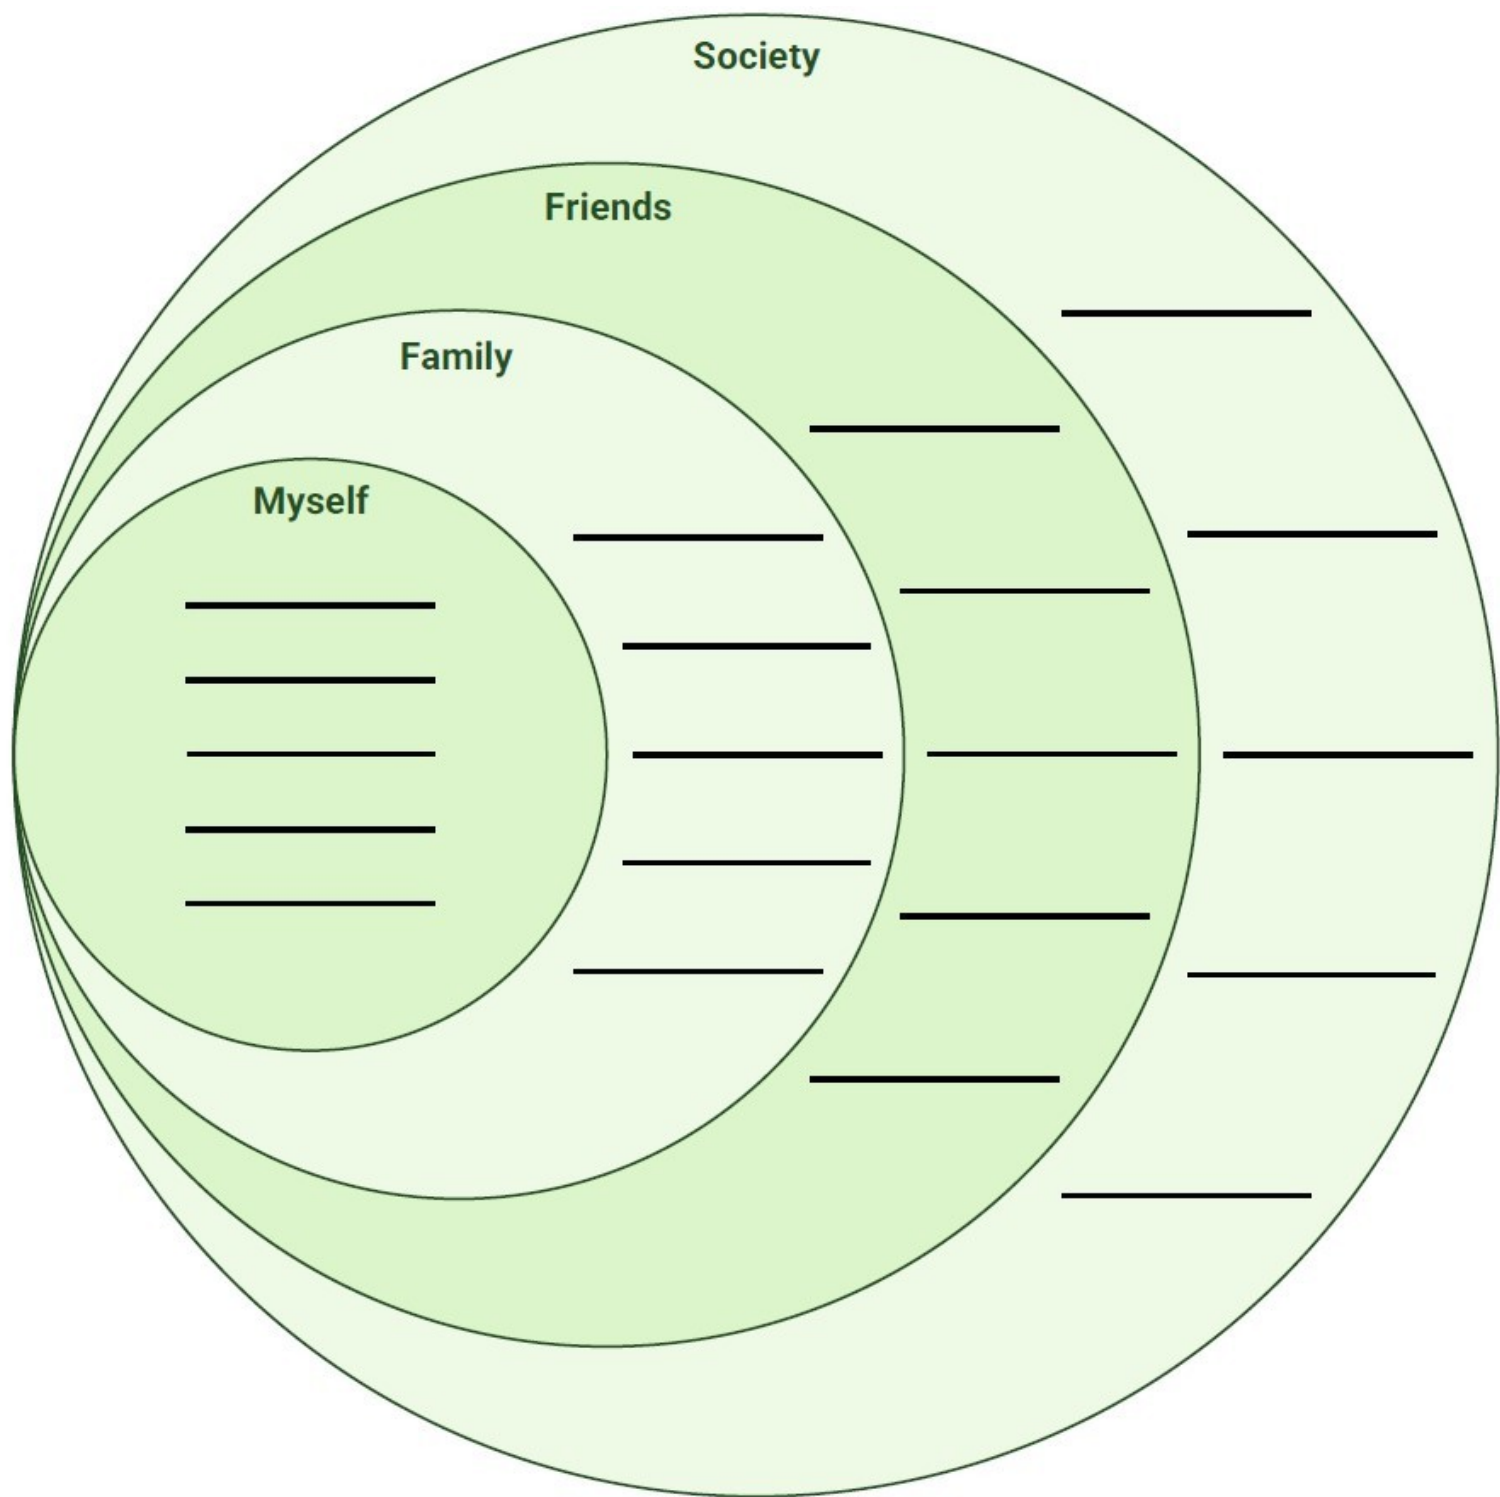

Marking Criteria

No Evidence NE	Emerging EM	Effective EF	Exemplary EX
Learner did not come prepared or engage / engaged very little in practical and theory learning. Learner does not have enough evidence to demonstrate understanding of social responsibility.	Learner comes prepared and has engaged well during theory and practical learning. Learner is able to correctly identify how their level of social responsibility has an impact on others.	Learner comes prepared and has engaged well during theory and practical learning. Learner is able to correctly identify and describe using examples how their level of social responsibility has an impact on others.	Learner comes prepared and has engaged exceptionally well during theory and practical learning. Learner is able to correctly identify, describe using examples how their level of social responsibility has an impact on others. Learner is able to evaluate by setting goals and future expectations.

Task 1: For each of the words below you are to write a definition that you understand, draw an image to show your understanding and give an example of the meaning.

Word	Definition	Image	Example
Social Responsibility
Personal Attitudes & Values
Society

Task 2: In the image below is an empty values circle. Values are the things you cherish most in life. They play a role in shaping your goals, priorities, and identity. Values are influenced by your own beliefs, as well as by your family, friends, and society. Staying true to your values can help you express your most authentic self. Each of the circles below represents yourself, your whānau, your friends and society. List the top 5 values held by each group or person below.

Task 3: Read carefully through the table below and in the box below you are to identify examples of what you might hear and see at each level.

Hellison's Levels of Social Responsibility

Social Responsibility Level	Description	Examples of what you might hear and see
Level 5: Outside of PE	● Trying all these goals in other areas of school and life ● Being a role model ● Assist others in reaching this level
Level 4: Helping others and Leadership	● Enthusiastic ● Positive ● Self motivated ● Feels proud/shows pride of being in their team. ● Communicates, consults and encourages other team members. ● Consider other team members i.e. help them, advise, feedback. ● Cheer, clap! ● High level of team member effort. ● Very respectful to other people i.e. other team, referee.
Level 3: Self-Direction	● Fully involved with the game. ● An active participant. ● Competitive ● Displays skill acquisition. ● Achieves individual goals. ● Can be selfish in their actions. ● Can be possessive of the ball. ● Does not talk or consult a lot ● Overly competitive at times.
Level 2: Participation and effort	● Follows instructions. ● Participates without intention or purpose. ● Very little effort made. ● Low contribution made. ● No talking, communication or active discussion. ● Plays generally through the motions of the game.

Level 1: Respect for the Rights and Feelings of Others	● Very poor, negative, disinterested attitude. ● Sits or stands and does nothing. ● Gossips with others in the game situation. ● Lingers around the game arena.
Level 0: Irresponsible	● Put someone down. ● Use inappropriate words and language. ● Respond or act in anger. ● Disrespecting equipment. ● Disregard or disrespect the referee/captain. ● Come late to class. ● Do not bring an appropriate PE uniform. ● Walk away from the game. ● Bully others.

Reflection: Throughout the term you are to take part in a variety of ACTIVITIES. During each activity you are to engage positively and reflect on the level of social responsibility you displayed and the impact it had on others.

Use the sentence starters below to help guide you.

I believe I worked at a level ____ because _____ (explain and describe something you said, give details like quotes)

Something else I did to demonstrate this level was _____ (explain and describe something you did, give details of your actions)

A value that influenced me in this was (describe the value you believe was the most influential to you in these actions)

The positive (or) negative impacts these actions had on my team were _____ (give details of how they reacted and how they played or changed SR level)

Next lesson I would like to achieve level _____. To achieve this level I need to _____ (refer to Hellion's model and what examples are used at that level).

To ensure these happen I will need to _____ (what actions do you need to do to achieve your goal).

Date:	Activity:
Learning Leader sign off:

Date:	Activity:

Learning Leader sign off:

Date:	Activity:
Learning Leader sign off:

Date:	Activity:

--

Learning Leader sign off:

Date:	Activity:

Learning Leader sign off:

Date:	Activity:

Learning Leader sign off:

Date:	Activity:

Learning Leader sign off:

Overall Term Reflection:

CLUNKS:

Words	Meaning / Definition